

2014 WV Education Summit Highlights

On October 20th, more than 250 business, community and education leaders gathered in Charleston for the Excellence in Education: It's Everyone's Business summit to share strategies to improve the quality of education for all West Virginia children. The summit was co-hosted by The Education Alliance and Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin.

What participants said about the WV Education Summit:

"Everyone thinking, talking, excited about education."

"Having the diverse group of people in the audience and participating was excellent."

"Dr. Martirano!!! He has given me renewed HOPE!"

"Business must communicate future needs to educators and students more effectively."

"Developing a collaborative approach with educators is vital to develop career paths for students."

"Today's students must be prepared to solve problems that haven't even been created yet."

"Excellent, informative event. Thank you for this tremendous opportunity to learn from the prestigious presenters."
